Stephanie,

A friend of mine is a nurse who has been deployed from her hospital to rescue nursing home patients in Port Arthur off of Jimmie Johnson. They have 60 patients they are trying to evac, 40 on oxygen with oxygen running low. They have turned to facebook are trying to reach out to local doctor at a hospital but only have the one boat and it is sounding like the hospital needs them to take the boat back to pick up the oxygen. Any suggestions to share from your FEMA days or as a Texan? (realize you don't live in port Arthur but might know of 800 phone numbers they are not thinking of)

Thanks,

Liz
